1. INTRODUCTION AND AIMS

The Girls' Learning Trust (the 'Trust') aims to ensure that:

- Students in our schools are safe, happy and making good progress.
- Students do not become NEET (not in education, employment or training).
- The exclusions process is applied fairly and consistently across all our schools.
- The exclusions process is understood by trustees, governors, staff, parents and students.

2. LEGISLATION AND GUIDANCE

This policy is based on statutory guidance from the Department for Education (DfE): Suspension and permanent exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England, including pupil movement. It is based on the following legislation, which outlines schools' powers to exclude students:

- Section 51a of the Education Act 2002, as amended by the Education Act 2011
- The School Discipline (Pupil Exclusions and Reviews) (England) Regulations 2012

In addition, the policy is based on:

- Part 7, chapter 2 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006, which sets out parental responsibility for excluded pupils
- Section 579 of the Education Act 1996, which defines 'school day'
- The Education (Provision of Full-Time Education for Excluded Pupils) (England) Regulations 2007, as amended by The Education (Provision of Full-Time Education for Excluded Pupils) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2014
- The Equality Act 2010
- Children and Families Act 2014
- The School Inspection Handbook, which defines 'off-rolling'
- Public Sector Equality Objectives

The policy should be read in conjunction with the following other relevant Trust policies:

- SEND Policy
- Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy
- Health and Safety Policy
- Each School's behaviour policy

3. DEFINITIONS

Suspension: when a student is removed from the school for a fixed period. This was previously referred to as a 'fixed-term exclusion'.

Permanent exclusion: when a student is removed from the school permanently and taken off the school admission register. This is sometimes referred to as an 'exclusion'.

Off-site direction: when a school requires a student to attend another education setting temporarily, to improve their behaviour.

Parent/carer: any person who has parental responsibility and any person who has care of the student.

Managed move: when a student is transferred to another school permanently. All parties, including parents/carers and the admission authority for the new school, should consent before a managed move occurs.

4. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Trust Board has overall accountability for the Exclusions Policy, while the Chief Executive Officer and Headteachers are responsible for its implementation across all schools within the Trust.

Trust Board	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Maintains oversight of the policy to ensure fair and consistent application across all schools. ▪ Receives reports from the CEO on suspensions and exclusions data, using this information to guide policy updates. ▪ Ensures alignment with the Trust’s commitment to safeguarding and educational progress. ▪ Provides the Secretary of State for Education with information about any exclusions in the last 12 months.
Headteacher	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Decides on exclusions, whether suspensions or permanent, following thorough investigation. ▪ Ensures the school process aligns with Trust policy (as set out in Section 6) and statutory guidelines. ▪ Communicates decisions to parents, including reasons and appeal options. ▪ Arranges alternative provision for suspensions for longer than five school days and coordinates reintegration meetings. ▪ Leads on development of the school’s behaviour policy.
Chief Executive Officer (CEO)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Oversees the application of this policy across the Trust to ensure consistency and compliance. ▪ Supports Headteachers in decisions, providing guidance on complex cases. ▪ Reports suspensions and exclusion data and trends to the Trust Board, identifying areas for improvement. ▪ Arranges and supports meetings of the Trust Exclusions Committee.
Local Governing Body (LGB)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Monitors school data to identify trends and support behaviour management improvements. ▪ Considers representations from parents / carers on suspensions where the total number of days out of school is under five in a single term. ▪ Approves the school’s behaviour policy.
Trust Exclusions Committee	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Reviews exclusion (and suspensions where applicable) decisions to determine if the student should be reinstated (as per Section 9 below). ▪ Hears parental appeals, as appropriate, ensuring fairness and transparency.
Local Authority (LA)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Provides guidance and support on cases to the Trust, including alternative provision for exclusions for longer than five school days. ▪ Assists with reintegration, especially in complex cases requiring additional resources. ▪ Ensures the Trust meets statutory obligations and promotes practices to reduce NEET risk.
All Staff	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Maintain high behavioural standards and apply the school’s behaviour policy consistently. ▪ Report incidents that may require intervention, supporting investigations as needed. ▪ Support the reintegration of excluded students, fostering a positive environment for their return.

5. THE DECISION TO SUSPEND OR EXCLUDE

The Headteacher has the sole authority to suspend or permanently exclude a student from a Trust school on disciplinary grounds. This decision can be made in response to behaviour occurring either inside or outside of school and will be taken with the utmost seriousness. Permanent exclusion is regarded as a last resort and will only be applied when other interventions have been unsuccessful.

Suspension and Exclusion Decisions

A decision to suspend a student will be made:

- In line with the school's behaviour policy.
- To signal that the student's behaviour is unacceptable.
- To indicate that continuing this behaviour could lead to permanent exclusion.
- When previous suspensions have proven insufficient, additional support strategies may be introduced to address the behaviour.

A student will be permanently excluded only:

- In response to serious or persistent breaches of the behaviour policy.
- If the student's presence would likely cause significant harm to the education or welfare of others.

Considerations Before Suspension or Exclusion

If a student is at risk of suspension or exclusion, the Headteacher will inform the parents / carers and the student as early as possible, in order to work together to consider what factors may be affecting the student's behaviour, and what further support can be put in place to improve the behaviour.

Before deciding to suspend or exclude a student, the Headteacher will:

- Review all relevant facts and evidence on the balance of probabilities, including whether an incident was provoked.
- Allow the student to present their account of events, considering their views in light of their age and understanding.
- Evaluate whether the student has special educational needs (SEN) or is particularly vulnerable, such as being a looked-after child (LAC) or has a social worker.
- Consider whether all alternative measures have been tried, such as detentions, off-site directions, or managed moves.
- Where necessary, students needing support to communicate their views will be allowed to have an advocate, such as a parent or social worker, to assist them in expressing their perspective. The Headteacher will carefully consider these views and will inform the student of how they were considered in reaching the final decision.

Definition of 'School Day'

For the purposes of suspension and permanent exclusion, a 'school day' is defined as any day with a school session. INSET or staff training days are therefore not counted as school days.

6. THE SUSPENSION AND EXCLUSION PROCESS

The Headteacher will provide the following information, in writing, to the parents of a suspended or excluded student:

- The reason(s) for the suspension or exclusion.
- The length of a suspension or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent
- Information about parents' right to make representations about the exclusion to the Local Governing Body (suspension) or Trust Exclusions Committee (suspensions and permanent exclusions) and how the student may be involved in this
- Where there is a legal requirement for the Trust Exclusions Committee to meet to consider the reinstatement of a student, and that parents have a right to attend a meeting, be represented at a meeting (at their own expense) and to bring a friend.
- The details of any reintegration meeting for the student.

The Headteacher will seek to notify parents by the end of the afternoon session on the day their child is suspended or excluded that for the first five school days of a suspension or exclusion, or until the start date of any alternative provision where this is earlier, parents are legally required to ensure that their child is not present in a public place during school hours without a good reason. Parents may be given a fixed penalty notice or prosecuted if they fail to do this.

Alternative Provision Arrangements and Notification

If alternative provision is being arranged, the following information will be included when notifying parents of an exclusion:

- The start date for any provision of full-time education that has been arranged.
- The start and finish times of any such provision, including the times for morning and afternoon sessions, where relevant.
- The address at which the provision will take place.
- Any information the student will require in order to identify the person they should report to on the first day.

Where this information on alternative provision is not reasonably ascertainable by the end of the afternoon session, it may be provided in a subsequent notice, but it will be provided no later than 48 hours before the provision is due to start. The only exception to this is where alternative provision is to be provided before the sixth day of an exclusion, in which case the information can be provided with less than 48 hours' notice with parents' consent.

Informing the CEO, Chair of Local Governing Body and Local Authority

The Headteacher will notify the Chief Executive Officer, the Chair of the Local Governing Body and the Local Authority (LA) of:

- A permanent exclusion, including when a suspension is made permanent.
- A suspension which would result in the student being excluded for 5 or more school days (10 or more lunchtimes) in a single term.
- Suspensions or exclusions which would result in the student missing a public examination.
- Any suspension or permanent exclusion meeting the above criteria that has been cancelled, including the reason for the cancellation.

For a permanent exclusion, if the student lives outside the Local Authority in which the school is located, the Headteacher will also inform the student's home authority of the exclusion and the reason for it without delay.

For all other suspensions and exclusions, the Headteacher will update the Chief Executive Officer, Chair of Local Governing Body and Local Authority at least once a term.

Informing a Social Worker and/or Virtual School Head (VSH)

If a student with a social worker or a looked-after child (LAC) is at risk of suspension or permanent exclusion, the Headteacher (or another nominated staff member such as the Designated Safeguarding Lead) will inform the relevant parties as early as possible:

- For a student with a social worker, the Headteacher will notify the social worker.
- For a looked-after child (LAC), the Headteacher will notify the Virtual School Head (VSH).

This early communication allows them to work together to assess factors influencing the student's behaviour and explore additional support to improve it.

If the Headteacher decides to proceed with a suspension or permanent exclusion for a student with a social worker or a looked-after child, they will promptly inform the social worker or VSH, including:

- The decision to suspend or permanently exclude the student.
- The reason(s) for this decision.
- The length of the suspension, or that the exclusion is permanent.
- If the suspension or exclusion affects the student's ability to take a public examination (where applicable).
- If they cancel the suspension or exclusion, along with the reason.

The social worker or VSH will be invited to any Trust Exclusions Committee meeting concerning the suspension or permanent exclusion. Their role is to provide insights into how the student's background or circumstances may have contributed and to ensure that safeguarding and welfare considerations are addressed.

7. CANCELLATION OF EXCLUSIONS

The Headteacher may cancel a permanent exclusion that has already begun or is scheduled to begin, provided the decision has not yet been reviewed by the Trust Exclusions Committee. In the event of a cancellation:

- The parents / carers, student governing board, and Local Authority (LA) will be notified.
- If applicable, the student's social worker and Virtual School Head (VSH) will also be notified without delay.
- The notification will include the reason for the cancellation.
- The Trust's obligation to hold a meeting to consider reinstatement will no longer apply.
- Parents / carers and student will be offered a meeting with the Headteacher to discuss the cancellation, which will be arranged promptly.
- The student will be permitted to return to school without delay.
- Any days the student spent out of school prior to the cancellation will count towards the 45-day maximum allowed for suspensions in a single school year.

A permanent exclusion cannot be cancelled if the student has already been excluded for more than 45 school days in a school year or if they will have been so by the time the cancellation takes effect.

8. PROVISION OF EDUCATION REQUIREMENT

If the student is not attending alternative provision (AP), the Headteacher will ensure that accessible and achievable work is provided and marked for the student for the first five school days of a suspension or permanent exclusion. Online platforms may be utilised for this purpose.

If the student has a special educational need or a disability, the Headteacher will ensure that reasonable adjustments are made to support their learning needs.

If the student is a looked-after child or has a social worker, the school will collaborate with the Local Authority (LA) to arrange AP from the first day following the suspension or permanent exclusion. If this is not feasible, the school will take reasonable steps to provide and assess work for the student, which may include using online platforms.

9. CONSIDERATION OF REINSTATEMENT

Trust Exclusions Committee

The Trust Board will establish a Trust Exclusions Committee (the 'Exclusions Committee') to be responsible for reviewing suspension and exclusion decisions in line with statutory guidelines and Trust / school policies.

The Exclusions Committee will be drawn from a membership of the Chief Executive Officer, Local Governing Body members and Trustees. It shall comprise at least three members and will be chaired by a Trustee who is not the Chief Executive Officer.

Members should be selected to ensure impartiality and independence, with none having prior involvement in the suspension or exclusion decision, any relationship with the student or their family, or conflicts of interest.

A clerk will be appointed to the Exclusions Committee to coordinate meetings, record minutes, and provide procedural guidance, ensuring the review process complies with legal requirements and Trust standards.

Reconsideration Process

The Exclusions Committee will automatically convene to consider the reinstatement of an excluded student within 15 school days of receiving the notice of the exclusion if:

- It is a permanent exclusion.
- It is a suspension which would bring the student's total number of school days of exclusion to 15 or more in a single term.
- It would result in a student missing a public examination.

If requested by parents/carers, the Exclusions Committee will meet to consider reinstatement within 50 school days of receiving notice of the exclusion if the student will be excluded for five or more but fewer than 15 school days in a term.

If a student has been suspended, and the suspension does not bring the total number of suspension days to five or more in a term, the Trust Board (via the Local Governing Body or the Chair of Trust Board) must consider any representations made by parents / carers, or by the student if they are 18 or older. However, it is not required to arrange a meeting of the Exclusions Committee and does not have the authority to direct the Headteacher to reinstate the student.

If a suspension or permanent exclusion would cause a student to miss a public examination, the Exclusions Committee will, as far as reasonably practicable, convene to consider and decide on the student's reinstatement before the exam or test date. If this is not feasible, the Chair of Trust Board may review the suspension or permanent exclusion and decide whether to reinstate the student for that period.

The Exclusions Committee will aim to arrange the meeting within the statutory time limits and at a time that accommodates all relevant parties. However, a decision will not be deemed invalid solely because it was made outside these time limits.

The following parties will be invited to a meeting of the Exclusions Committee and allowed to make representations or share information:

- Parents / carers, or the student if they are 18 or older (and, if requested, a representative or friend)
- The student, if they are under 18 and it is appropriate for their age and understanding (and, if requested, a representative or friend)
- The Headteacher
- The student's social worker, if applicable
- The Virtual School Head (VSH), if the student is looked after

Remote Access to Meetings

The meeting may be held remotely at the request of the parents / carers, or the student if they are 18 or older. If no preference is expressed, the meeting should be conducted in person.

In cases of extraordinary or unforeseen circumstances that make an in-person meeting impracticable, the meeting will be held remotely. Remotely accessed meetings must follow the same procedural requirements as in-person meetings.

Before agreeing to hold a meeting remotely, the school / Trust will ensure the following conditions are met:

- All participants have access to technology that allows them to hear, speak, see, and be seen.
- All participants will be able to participate fully.
- The remote meeting can proceed in a fair and transparent manner.
- Social workers and the Virtual School Head (VSH) may always join remotely, regardless of whether the meeting is held in person, provided they meet the conditions for remote access listed above.

If unresolved technical issues during a remote meeting compromise effective participation or prevent fair and transparent proceedings, the meeting will be promptly rescheduled as an in-person meeting.

The Reconsideration Decision

The Exclusions Committee can either:

- Decline to reinstate the student, or
- Direct the reinstatement of the student immediately, or on a particular date.

In reaching its decision, the Exclusions Committee will review whether the exclusion was lawful, reasonable, and procedurally fair, and whether the Headteacher adhered to legal duties. The Committee will use the “balance of probabilities” standard (different from the criminal standard of “beyond reasonable doubt”) to assess whether facts are true, alongside any relevant evidence related to the exclusion.

Minutes will be taken of the meeting and a record of evidence considered kept. The outcome will also be recorded on the student’s educational record.

The Exclusions Committee will notify, in writing, the Headteacher, parents and the LA of its decision, along with reasons for its decision, without delay.

Where it is a permanent exclusion, the Exclusions Committee’s decision will also include the following:

- Confirmation that the exclusion is permanent.
- Notice of the right to request an independent review panel.
- The deadline for applying for an independent review.
- The name and address to which the review application should be sent.
- Instructions to include grounds for the review application and, if applicable, how the student’s SEN is relevant to the exclusion.
- Notice that parents have the right to request a SEN expert at the review, free of charge to the parents, regardless of whether the student has a formally recognized SEN.
- Details on the role of the SEN expert in the review process.
- Clarification that parents/carers may bring a friend and/or appoint someone at their expense to make representations to the panel.

- Information that if parents believe the exclusion was discriminatory, they may file a claim under the Equality Act 2010 with the First-tier Tribunal (Special Educational Needs and Disability) for disability discrimination or the County Court for other types of discrimination. Claims must be filed within 6 months of the alleged discriminatory event.

10. INDEPENDENT REVIEW

If parents apply for an independent review, the Trust will arrange for an Independent Review Panel (the 'Panel') to review the decision not to reinstate a permanently excluded student.

Applications for an independent review must be made within 15 school days of notice being given to the parents by the Exclusions Committee of its decision not to reinstate a student.

Independent Review Panel

A panel of three or five members will be constituted with representatives from each of the categories below. Where a five-member panel is constituted, two members will come from the School Governors category and two members will come from the Headteacher category.

- A lay member to act as Chair of the panel who has not worked in any Trust school in a paid capacity, disregarding any experience as a school governor or volunteer.
- School Governors who have served as a Governor for at least 12 consecutive months in the last five years, provided they have not been teachers or headteachers during this time. This includes members of Local Governing Bodies within other multi academy trusts.
- Headteachers or individuals who have been a Headteacher within the last five years.

A person may not serve as a member of an Independent Review Panel if they:

- Are a Trustee or Member of the Trust, or a member of the Local Governing Body of the excluding school.
- Are the Headteacher of the excluding school or have held this position in the last five years.
- Are an employee of the excluding school.
- Have, or at any time have had, any connection with the Trust, school, governing board, parents or student, or the incident leading to the exclusion, which might reasonably be taken to raise doubts about their impartiality.
- Have not had the required training within the last two years (see Appendix One for more details on the required training)

A clerk will be appointed to the Panel to coordinate meetings, record minutes, and provide procedural guidance, ensuring the review process complies with legal requirements.

Review Process

The Panel must consider the interests and circumstances of the student, including the circumstances leading to their suspension or exclusion, and take into account the interests of other students and staff at the school.

Taking into account the student's age and understanding, the student and their parents / carers will be made aware of their right to attend and participate in the review meeting and the student should be enabled to make representations on their own behalf, should they desire to.

If a SEN expert is present, the Panel must seek and consider their views on how the student's SEN may relate to the exclusion.

Where a social worker is present, the Panel must consider any representations regarding how the student's experiences, needs, safeguarding risks, or welfare may be relevant to the exclusion.

If a Virtual School Head (VSH) is present, the Panel must consider any representations from the VSH about how the student's background, education, and safeguarding needs were considered by the Headteacher prior to the exclusion or are relevant to the exclusion.

The Independent Review Decision

New evidence may be presented, though the school cannot introduce new reasons for the exclusion or the decision not to reinstate the student. The Panel must disregard any new reasons that are introduced.

In deciding whether the decision was flawed, and therefore whether to quash the decision not to reinstate the student, the panel must only take account of the evidence that was available to the Exclusions Committee at the time of making its decision. This includes any evidence that the Panel considers would, or should, have been available to the Exclusions Committee and that it ought to have considered if it had been acting reasonably.

If evidence is presented that the Panel considers it is unreasonable to expect the Exclusions Committee to have been aware of at the time of its decision, the Panel can take account of the evidence when deciding whether to recommend that the Trust reconsider reinstatement.

The Independent Review Panel will decide one of the following:

- Uphold the Trust's decision to permanently exclude the student.
- Recommend that the Trust reconsiders reinstatement.
- Quash the Trust's decision and direct that they reconsider reinstatement (only when the decision is judged to be flawed).

The Panel's decision can be decided by a majority vote. In the case of a tied decision, the Chair has the casting vote. The panel will notify all parties in writing without delay.

11. SCHOOL ADMISSION REGISTERS

A student's name will be removed from the school admissions register if:

- 15 school days have passed since the parents were notified of the Exclusion Committee's decision to not reinstate the student and no application has been made for an independent review panel, or
- The parents have stated in writing that they will not be applying for an independent review panel.

Where an application for an independent review has been made, the school will wait until that review has concluded before removing a student's name from the register.

Where alternative provision has been made for an excluded student and they attend it, code B (education off-site) or code D (dual registration) will be used on the attendance register. Where excluded students are not attending alternative provision, code E (absent) will be used.

Making a Return to the Local Authority (LA)

If a student's name is to be removed from the school admissions register due to a permanent exclusion, the school will submit a return to the LA. This return will include:

- The student's full name.
- The full name and address of any parent/carer with whom the student normally resides.

- At least one contact telephone number for any parent/carer with whom the student normally resides.
- The grounds for deletion from the admissions register (i.e., permanent exclusion).
- Details of the new school the student will attend, including the name of the school and the first date of attendance or expected date, if the parents/carers have provided this information.
- Details of the student's new address, including the address itself, the name of the parent/carer(s) the student will live with, and the date they are expected to begin living there, if the parents/carers have notified the school of a house move.

This return must be made as soon as the grounds for removal are met and no later than the removal of the student's name from the admissions register.

12. RETURNING FROM A SUSPENSION

Following a suspension, a re-integration meeting will be held involving the student, parents, a member of senior staff and other staff, where appropriate. The following measures may be implemented:

- Agreeing on a behaviour contract or pastoral support plan.
- Providing targeted intervention or support to help the student improve their behaviour.
- Conducting a restorative conversation to address the incident and rebuild relationships.
- Offering additional SEN support.

Part-time timetables should not be used as a tool to manage behaviour and, if used, will be put in place for the minimum time necessary.

The reintegration strategy will be regularly reviewed and adapted where necessary throughout the reintegration process in collaboration with the student, parents / carers and other relevant parties.

While the school encourages all returning students and their parents / carers to participate in the reintegration meeting, students who do not attend will still be allowed to return to school.

13. MONITORING AND REPORTING

The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for monitoring the use of suspensions and exclusions. Local Governing Bodies and the Trust Board are jointly accountable for monitoring suspensions and exclusions termly, annually, and over three years to ensure no student group is unfairly impacted and that individual needs are met.

APPENDIX ONE: INDEPENDENT REVIEW PANEL TRAINING

The Trust is committed to ensuring that all members of an Independent Review Panel, as well as clerks supporting the panel, are appropriately trained within the two years prior to the date of any review.

This training covers essential areas to enable the panel to make fair, lawful, and well-informed decisions. Key components of the training include:

- A comprehensive understanding of the primary legislation, regulations, and statutory guidance governing exclusions. This includes how the principles relevant to judicial review apply to the panel's decision-making process.
- The importance of adhering to procedural fairness and the principles of natural justice throughout the review process.
- Clarification of the specific roles of the panel chair and the clerk, ensuring they understand their responsibilities in facilitating a fair and effective review.
- Awareness of the duties and obligations of headteachers, governing boards, and the review panel under the Equality Act 2010, ensuring decisions do not unlawfully discriminate against any individual or group.

- Knowledge of section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998, which mandates that public authorities act in a way that respects and upholds the human rights protected under this Act.
